Movies will again he shown for the kids at 2:00 and 3:30 in the Scout Hut. A greased pole contest for girls at 3:30 p.m.

A new event for the Days of '49, will be initiated this year. This is the closing of the Days of '49 with a Chuck Wagon Feed and Bed Down Service. The feed will be an old-fashioned beef stew served piping hot from a kettle hung over an open camp fire. After dinner Tim Spencer, well known radio star and founder of the Sons of the Pioneers, will lead in a community sing. A short, non denominational, service will then be held around the open camp fires and under the stars.

A complete program is given in the special issue of the Lakeside Star.

This authentic, small scale, western stage will be one of the features of the 49er parade. It was hand built by Tom LaMadrid of Lakeside and is complete from real brakes to the strong box on the roof. The costumed youngsters are all seven years old or younger. School Enrollment Figures Reach New High. Classrooms Overcowded

More than 980 boys and girls enrolled in Lakeside Schools on the opening day again setting a new District record. Enrollment by grades as follows: Kindergarten, 98; Grade 1, 150; Grade 2, 120; Grade 3, 94; Grade 4, 114; Grade 5, 104; Grade 6, 100; Grade 7, 100; Grade 8, 94; Special Training, 8.

Continuing new enrollments during the first days of school promises to swell the total to more than 1,000. Limited classroom space has made it necessary to double session all grades Kindergarten through Grade 3 and has imposed numerous transportation and other problems.

Everything considered, however, good staff planning and parent cooperation reduced the usual opening day problems to a minimum. As usual there were unavoidable mix-ups involving primary children getting on the wrong busses, etc. but these were all ironed out before the close of the day.

Parents whose children are in double session classes will be encouraged to learn that the school Board at their last meeting set the date of October 14 for the opening of bids on the proposed seven new classrooms scheduled for the Lindo Park site. Mr. Clyde Rufbauer, District architect, who was present at the meeting, estimated that the rooms could be completed within 180 days and that there are sufficient district funds on hand to complete the work.

Continunig our policy to furnish the children of this district with the best education possible, the school administration and Board of Trustees welcome suggestion from parents. To this end parents are cordially invited to visit their schools as often as possible in order to become better acquainted with the school program and to keep school officials informed as to their wishes.

VIEW - POINT

By
Robert G. Kaplan, Ph.D.
Clinical Psychologist

For some unknown reason a consulting psychologist may see several people with almost identical difficulties within a few days. Months may go by before individuals with the same difficulties appear.

In the past few days the problem of jealousy seems to have taken a dominant role in the lives of patients I have seen. Usually it is not the jealous person who comes in for consultation, it is their victims. This situation runs something like this. A wife sees her physician telling him that she feels run down, tired, and anxious. The physician finds no physical cause for these complaints. He, however, recommends extra rest and vitamins. A few weeks go by and she feels no better. Being a housewife with children at home there is seldom time for extra rest. She returns to her physician. Perhaps he prescribes a mild sedative. This helps her sleep but there is no marked improvement. He suggests that there may be something wrong at home and she says she is not getting along too well with her husband. The physician listens and feels that these difficulties could best be handled by a psychologist. She comes to the office and the story goes something like this.

She cannot cope with her husband's jealousy. If he calls on the phone and she doesn't answer by the second ring he immediately feels that she was in the arms of the good looking guy who lives next door. Actually she was out in the yard hanging clothes. If she says hello to one of the clerks at the local grocery, the husband suspects that a big romance is going on between them. If a man dances with her at a social gathering her husband is glum and gives her a look that "kills." If she goes downtown and it not home when he returns from work he questions her endlessly as to her whereabouts. This is just a mild sample of what it is like to live with a jealous person. At a party where drinks are served the husband may take one too many and this makes the jealousy that much more obnoxious. If a man looks at the wife the husband challenges him to a fight, or makes a scene by insisting that they leave the party immediately. He is extremely argumentive accusing and even physically abusive on the way home. The next few days he is repentant but then it starts all over again.

Jealousy truly is a green eyed monster!

Perhaps it is well to consider some of the pschological aspects of jealousy. It frequently arises out of great feelings of inadequacy. In the courting situation he won this girl over other suitors. He may feel that is not quite worthy of the girl he has won. This feeling is probably based on a lack of security from an early age. He basically feels that other men are so much superior to him that any one of them could take his wife from him simply by turning on their charm. He feels unconsciously that he must fight to keep what is so insecurely his. Since he does not feel adequate to attacking men toward whom he feels inferior, he vents these feelings on his wife. When his courage is bolstered by a few drinks he will fight openly.

In the mild stages we simply call this jealousy. At the extremes this jealousy represents a rather definite and extreme form of mental illness. In my practice I see the entire range. It is a difficult situation to cope with. The jealous mate sets up an incompatable situation, they want their mate to be beautiful to them but to no other person. This is impossible.

Jealousy in the extreme forms is a neurotic symptom. In this discussion I used the jealous husband. Jealous wives are just as numerous. These feelings have wrecked more marriages than it is possible to count.

Relationships in marriage are based on mutual trust, not suspicion. People are often driven to infidelity by mistrust, in sort of a getting even way. This too is undesirable as it further complicates an already unhappy situation.

Jealous feelings can be worked out, if not by yourself, with the aid of a competent professional person. Watch your jealousy lest you become a victim of this green eyed monster.

Five Straight For Super Yanks

The majority of American baseball fans took the announcement that the New York Yankees had won their fifth straight American League pennant, the only team to ever accomplish such a fete, the same way that the Yankees themselves did, calmly.

Huggins led way

The Bronx Bombers who started their pennant parade under the late and great Miller Huggins in 1921 have copped twenty pennants in the last thirty-two years, an enviable accomplishment within itself. It has been said that the wearing of a Yankee uniform does something to a ball player; to old pros who other clubs deemed "finished," to youngsters just breaking in to the 'big tent" and it must be so for the Yanks go out to win, and to the elation of some and the disappointment of many others, they do just that.

Dodgers 5 for 12

Everyone knows now that another "cross-twon" series is in the offing as Charlie Dressen's Brooklyn Dodger wrapped up the National League title last week; their fifth in the last twelve years. While the Yankees are said to have taken their championship calmly, it would be against Dodger tradition for them to ever take anything with such a quiet display of emotion. For the Dodgers are the scrappers in major league baseball, the team that never takes anything lying down; a pennant or a called strike three.

Brooklyn is thirsting for revenge against their elite opponents quartered in uptown New York. The Yanks have not only dominated American League play for the past five seasons, but have dominated the Dodgers in every world series encounter.

Yanks Again?

While cries from the vvicinity of Ebbets Field may be heard saying: "They'll never do it again, we're gonna grab this one," those who allegedly know their baseball are picking the men from Manhatten in the '53 series. Odds are on the Yankees to do it again.

If this year's series is anything like the '52 worlds championship, fans can look hopefully forward to some of the greatest in baseball.

Coast League attendance this year fell off nearly 500,00 from last year. Oakland ball park is now being turned into a quarter mile dirt track and may not have a ball team next year.

The complete airing of the Little League Volunteer Umpiring situation in El Cajon is a virtual impossibility. To query all of the sources which are involved in this bitter dispute is impossible, in that there are as many factions in this case as there are people interested in Little League Baseball in this city.

One fact stands paramount above all the rest, that being that volunteer umpires have been retained by the Little League for the 1954 season.

While many people were against the reinstatement of volunteer umpires for 1954 their anger was aroused even more by the method in which the situation was handled by the Little League Directors. The Volunteer Umpire's Association was retained for '54 by the unanimous vote of five Little League Directors. There are twelve Directors in El Cajon's Little League, but only five attended the meeting and their vote was accepted as the opinion of the whole group.

Three of the five directors were present at most of the Little League games, the other two came to the meeting without a complete picture of the situation as they were not present for many of the Little League contests.

Another point which aroused the ire of interested parties of the question, was the fact that Managers of the six Little League teams in the American League were not allowed to vote on the question, nor were they allowed to completely state their case to the directors. Personalities entered the picture and various charges were leveled at individuals rather than the point in question. This was not condusive to solving the problem facing the Little League nor in the best interests of the sport itself.

This writer queried five of the Managers of the six Little League teams and found that three of them were decidedly against Volunteer Umpires for 1954, the two others would accept the Directors decision with the reservation that the Umpire's Association make a definite effort to improve by the time the '54 season rolls arounds.

The opinion of the Managers must be heard in lieu of the fact that they are closest to the game itself. They, as Managers, have the responsibility of molding the youngsters representing their teams into not only skillful baseball players, but into men who will be our leaders of tomorrow.

There is no intention upon the part of this columnist to indulge in a smear campaign against El Cajon's Little League, the Directors of the league, or the Umpiring Association as such. But the umpiring of Little League Baseball in El Cajon for the 1953 was decidedly lax.

It must be remembered that 1953 marked the first year that a Volunteer Umpire's Association officiated the games for the American League. Considering that one fact it must also be recognized that on the whole the competence of the Umpires did not improve as the season progressed. Only two of the group; Eddie Hallett and Bill Crain escaped the wrath of Managers, Players and fans throughout the season as these two men turned in consistently good performances and seemed to improve as the season advanced. Others of the group were not so fortunate.

To the Umpire's Association I offer these three suggestions:

1. Make certain that each umpire in your association is thoroughly familiar with the Little League rules, in their entiretv, before the first game of the 1954 season.

2. Become completely familiar with the techniques of umpiring; that is, know the positions used by professional umpires in calling plays, balls and strikes, and solving the technical questions which arise in any ball game.

3. Assume a professional attitude toward the game itself, remembering the principles upon which the game was founded and the purpose of Little League Baseball. A game which was devised for the betterment of America's youth.

Joe Brooks, Marathon Star Sets New Goal For Competition This Year

Joe Brooks, nationally acclaimed distance runner, is starting to train for the coming Marathon season.

Brooks, former track star at Grossmont High, was the winner of the Petaluma Spartan's Marathon, 26-mile race for all West Coast honors in distance running, last year. After Petaluma, Brooks entered the Yonkers, New York AAU Marathon and Olympic tryouts in the late Spring.

Joe said that he is doing only "light running," now as he has been away from serious training throughout the summer. He intends to continue building up his speed and stamina until around the First of January; at which time he will begin running short distances and make serious preparations for the invitational Marathons beginning in the Spring.

Uphill Climb

The rise to fame of this young El Cajon athlete has not been so illustrious as that of some of our more prominently known competitors. From early childhood, Brooks showed a remarkable talent for running. His quick-footed abilities were only overshadowed by his love of running and an ambition to be better than average in running events.

While attending Grossmont, Brooks won laurels for himself as a trackman who could compete in dashes as well as in Cross Country events. It was while attending the Foothill institution under the tutorship of Jack Mashin that Joe began to realize his ability in the running of longer distances.

After entering San Diego State College, Joe concentrated on Cross Country more than the better known track events and constantly improved with the aid of "Choc" Sportsman, genial SDSC track mentor, who realized that Brooks was a hard worker who would not be satisfied with mediocre performances.

Entered Heavy Competition

In his Junior year at "State" Joe decided to make his bid among the best of America's distance runners. As he said at the time: "I have to find out whether or not I can accomplish something as a runner."

Joe went to the Petaluma Marathon unhearalded and largely on his own efforts. His brilliant performance in the winning of the 26-mile 385-yard race; regulation distance for a Marathon, brought instantaneous recognition from sports writers, fellow runners, and fans of this specialized sport. Brooks was tabbed as a young man to be noticed in the future and as a definite threat to some of the better known winners.

He was entered in the Yonkers race after his Petaluma win and was aided in his Eastern junket by friends who staged a benefit for him.

Gained Friends

While Joe was not the winner of the Yonkers race his showing gained him many friends in track circles and his place as a marathoner was definitely earned.

Aside from running. Brooks has many other interests. Joe is at present completing his course at San Diego State in the field of Education and intends to take up teaching as a profession. He was an outstanding student in High School as well as in College, holding several student body offices, earning numerals in track and basketball, and still maintaining a creditable grade point average. Born the son of a school teaching mother the thought of becoming an educator probably came naturally to him.

Marriage, Work and Running

Joe married his childhood sweetheart late last year and the young couple expect a child sometime in the near future.

Brooks intends to sandwich his running workouts between school, part time work at the El Cajon Post Office, and his other activities.

Will Improve

While many athletes give up any hope for competitive betterment after marriage or the acceptance of a full-time job, Joe will probably continue to improve. If an injury or some other misfortune doesn't overcome him, Brooks will almost certainly be one of the recognized track greats in Marathon running within the next few years.

And why?

Because Joe Brooks just loves to run.

An old athlete who picked up a pen after laying down his baseball bat has remarked, "There are three 'ations' to athletic greatness — concentration, determination and relaxation."

45,816 Swimmers At Gillespie Pool This Year

With the closing of Gillespie Pool on September 10, Cletus "Biff" Gardiner, County Recreation Director, announced that the pool had completed another outstanding swimming season.

19,519 Bathers In July

A total of 45,816 persons took advantage of the County's largest pool for the three-month summer season. A record breaking opening day attendance of 1,062 started things off in June and the torrid month of July saw 19,519 bathers flock to the cooling atmosphere of the ex-Marine "swimmin' hole."

"We enjoyed a most successful season this year and are looking forward hopefully to 1954," Gardiner said.

While the pool has closed for the year preparations are being made for the opening of the Gillespie Gym on October 5.

Gym Being Revamped

Gardiner said that many improvements are being made to better the gym's present facilities and broaden its recration program. The interior is receiving a new coat of paint a general clean-up program has been started.

Lighting System Changed

Gardiner stressed the point that the lighting system in the gym, considered to be inadequate and practically obsolete, is being completely revamped. "We are going to lower the lights down from the ceiling to eliminate 'dead spots' in the overall lighting effect and make general improvements in their structure," he said.

"Before, we had to use a tree trimmer's outfit when repairs were necessary on the lights, but in lowering them we intend to install a chain system whereby we can lower and raise each light and make the necessary repairs with comparative ease," Gardiner added. "We also are making an attempt to better our present system of changing the volley ball court into a basket ball courts and vice-versa; with special emphasis being placed on devising a better method of anchoring our volley ball standards," he concluded.

PA Unit Installed

The pool's public address system will be taken over to the gym for use in the coming basketball season and for use in special winter sports events at Gillespie.

With an improved gym, wider recreational facilities, and authorized county recreation leadership, Gillespie could well present its finest season of winter sports.

187 lb. Marlin Caught By Lakeside Woman

Deep sea anglers, who have been hoping for a heavy run of fish to prolong the live bait season beyond its usual time, appeared to be getting their wish doubled in spades last weekend.

Marlin fishing at last appeared to be getting into high gear when 10 of the big spikebills were taken Saturday and feeders and tailers were seen by anglers at almost every turn. Largest taken was a 198 pounder caught by Emmett Ries, of San Diego. Second on the list was a 187 pounder caught by Mrs. W. A. Hoss, of Lakeside.

The big schools of yellows which had showed almost total indifference to bait offerings suddenly turned hungry and anglers had a field day at their expense. At the same time, one bluefin tuna was taken, rekindling hopes for another run of those scrappy fish. The big run last July started in almost the same way.

Fishing at the Islands also got another boost from barracuda, which moved into the middle grounds of the Coronados in numbers and 625 were taken Saturday alone by a mere handful of anglers.

Irish Tabbed Nations Top College Team

Much to "intellectual" Frank Leahy's chagrin the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame are tabbed as the kingpins of college football for 1953.

Leahy, a brilliant coach well known for his mastery of the king's English as well as the science of "bodily contact", is a man who never forsees a good future for his kelly green crew.

But, whether or not Leahy approves, 171 sportswriters and broadcasters participating in the annual Associated Press' preseason poll of football powress rated Notre Dame as the number one ranking team in the nation.

On the basis of a point system which gives a team chosen to finish first 10 points, a team finishing second nine points, a third place team eight points, etc., the Irish received a total of 1,668 points.

Last year's number one club, the Spartans of Michigan State are tabbed for the second-place bridesmaid's spot this year and the "Ramblin' Wreck's" from Georgia Tech, a football powerhouse of a few year's back is picked as a third place finisher.

The remaining seven teams of the pre-season favored ten are: UCLA, Alabama, Oklahoma, Ohio State, Southern California, Maryland, and the southern gentlemen from Duke, in that order.

Judging from last year's wild season the AP typewriter jockeys may have to make some hasty changes in their picks to save face, but no one relishes the thought of having to pick the wining club so early in the season. However, the boys that camp with the AP have proven themselves capable forecasters on the whole for the many years that they have gone out on the proverbial limb.

'Game Of The Week' Set For TV Fans

Mel Allen and Lindsay Nelson, NBC sports commentators, "kick-off" the 1953 collegiate football season for television, Saturday at Lincoln, Nebraska.

Saturday's grid go will feature Nebraska's "Cornhuskers," and the "Webfoots," of Oregon. General Motors will sponsor the "Game of the Week," series over the 84-station NBC network.

The return of the one-platoon system in intercollegiate football will make television history in that the Nebraska-Oregon tussle will be the first one-platoon college game ever telecast.

The "Game of the Week" series will include games in all sections of the United States based on a schedule set up by the NCAA.

Oregon and Nebraska are each considered to be dark-horse candidates this year, in their respective leagues, and they figure to start the '53 season off with plenty of fireworks as fall is officially opened by the inhabitants of Lincoln, and the "50-yard-line fans of Saturday television."

Athletic Club Sets Sights On Better Recreation

El Cajon's newly organized Athletic Club is movingg ahead with plans in the winter months Athletic Club is moving ahead to raise funds and a solidly knit organization established to enhance the recreation facilities of El Cajon residents.

Founded Late n '53

The organization was founded in the closing moments of the City's "Playground Season" when a definite need for a year-round recreation program presented itself. The City of El Cajon, some of the city's outstanding businessmen, employees in some of El Cajon's Civil Service departments, and interested sports fans and participants have met on the common ground of establishing an athletic club which will definitely be an asset to the community.

The need for such an organization is long overdue as the growth of the valley with its steady increase in population has demanded such a group for more than five years.

SPONSORS SHOW

On September 17, the Club sponsored a motion picture in the El Cajon theatre and had as its special guests Frank "Lefty" O'Doul, popular San Diego Padre manager, and "Long Tom" Alston, the Padre's regular first-baseman for the 1953 season. At that time the AC's presented O'Doul with a plaque designating him the manager of the year. Over 200 persons attended the movie in support of the AC's fund raising campaign.

Not content with progress on paper alone, the club has a representative in the San Diego Winter Sandlot league, which is currently in second place in the league standings. In their last outing the team, under the management of Lee Avra, swept by the Moulin Rouge of Tijuana 6 to 5 after a three-run outburst in the ninth inning.

The AC's are priming themselves for an encounter with the sandlot leaders sponsored by the Disabled American Vets on Sunday, September 27.

TO MEET MONDAYS

Until further notice the club will hold forth each Monday at the Best Spot Cafe, Main and Julian streets, for a 12 o'clock luncheon meeting. Interested sports fans are invited to attend these meetings as the club is trying to enlist the aid of all sports minded people in the valley.

At present it looks like a long overdue need for El Cajon, a solidly united well, functioning Athletic Club is well on its way to reality.

Carl Flurillo, oustanding outfielder for the Brooklyn Dodgers has been fueding with Leo Durocher, New York Giants manager for most of the 1953 season over the age old "bean ball" question.

One day Carl let his temper get the best of him and went after the formidable "Lip". In the scuffle that followed Flurillo received an injured foot and will be sidetracked for the rest of the season and probably the World Series.

Flurillo has said that he is going to "get the Lip" Leo says that he is waiting for Mr. Flurillo.

Football Carnival Features Seven School Teams

San Diego's City schools will present the 15th annual Football Carnival on Friday night, Sept. 25, in Balboa Stadium.

Since its beginning in 1938, the Carnival has grown in size and stature and this year's 1500 students participants will receive all West-Coast news acclaim.

Seven schools will participate in this year's combination of football and pageantry which features bands and special drill teams, almost as much as a preseason view of the city's football aggregations. Lincoln Junior-Senior High will be represented this year for the first time as it will take part in the pageantry, but will not compete in the "East-West" game.

Helix High, of La Mesa, will be a guest of the city schools again this year as it allies itself with Kearny and San Diego High representing the "East" contingent against Hoover, Point Loma and La Jolla off the "West."

In the three-quarter sneak preview Helix takes on Hoover in the first period, Kearny goes against Point Loma in the "middle third," and San Diego goes against the "Vikings" of La Jolla in the final frame.

Carnival manager, Bill Bailey, has announced that reserved seats, ($1.50), are available now at Stanley Andrews Sporting Goods Company's downtown location and at each of the seven participating schools. General admission tickets will run $1.00 while children under 12 will be admitted for 50 cents.

Manager Left O'Doul of the Padres remarked after the close of the 1953 baseball season, Sunday: "With a few replacements we should definitely be a contender for first division honors."

After reading that the Padres had finished sixth n the Coast League Pennant race and suffered a poor season at the box office as well, an old pro who gave up the baseball wars for a more secure form of employ ment said: "Lefty's right, just a few more replacements—one for every position."

HOWDY FOLKS:

Bears are different. As you know, I'm Smokey, who fights forest fires. But Hector, one member of the bear family, is a garbage collector.

Hector eats too much of the wrong things, has been led into annoying habits. Hector needs your help.

Hector's problem is this. All of us bears need a wholesome diet of grubs, rodents, roots, berries and especially honey. But Hector, I hate to admit, has become a tramp. He follows where you humans go—in the woods, by the streams and lakes, into the farthest reaches of the parks and forests.

Hector (shame on him) makes a dishonest living by pawing over garbage and debris the untidy folks toss aside at their camps.

Now I'm not so worried about what Hector eats as I am about preserving for us bears and for you people the few remaining sanctuaries of American wilderness. Bears as well as humans need our forest and parks. And we need them clean, healthful and uncluttered. Rusty cans and broken bottles just don't belong in our forests.

So I appeal to you outdoors people — fishermen, hunters, packers, campers, hikers, to use your company manners and common sense in our forests. Don't be a litterbug. Join me in educating the spoilers.

Help me make an honest bear out of Hector.

Thanks!

SMOKEY.

Assembly Group Plans Dances

The Assembly Seniors from La Mesa, Grossmont and El Cajon will first get acquainted at the home of the W. H. Macombers before going to the Kona Kai Club, via the Miller Party. Mrs. Macomber and Mrs. Joseph Levikow, her co-hostess, are programming entertainment in the popular questionnaire form. Punch will be served in the dining room, observing all the niceties due to guests in formal gowns and tuxedos.

The Junior Assembly subscribers are no less gay than the Seniors. They will dance on the 18th from 8:30 to 11:30, but before the dance the younger set has many pre-parties planned. The buffet supper at the Harold Logan home in El Cajon should appeal to the youngerset, for it has had the approval of their daughter. Borrowing a touch of New Mexico, Mrs. Logan plans to top the walls of their adobe courtyard and the home with paper bags containing lighted candles.

Mrs. R. Marvin Jackson plans to serve a coke punch in her playroom for the youngsters of Grossmont, La Mesa and El Cajon. The young subscribers in this area have a real treat in store for them, for Mrs. Jackson has promised to leave open the door to their wonderful train room.

What is probably the oldest wild duck on record is one shot on the Sartian Ranch in California Dec. 27, 1952. It was banded at Lake Merritt, California, Dec. 8, 1932, making it at least 20½ years old when shot.

'The Youth Speaks'

By J. C. La Suer

It seems like I have not had much time to get very nosey or newsy since coming home. Am wondering what happened to the Teenager's Club?

Tuesday found me busy, my first day at Grossmont. A little bout with my tonsils kept me at home until then. My goodness, I never saw so many shoes to be shined at Grossmont. There may be more next week. Those upper classmen will have to be their own shoe shine boys. Really it is loads of fun being a freshman. All freshman look forward to the day when they will be a sophomore so they can look on and make some lowly freshman shine shoes, and all of the other zany things they can think of.

Our house has been getting boxes and packages, by mail, almost every day since we got home. It seems like we left something at every place we stopped. We left our white and we took from White Sands, New Mexico but that hasn't been mailed to us yet.

My mother promised to bring some seeds from Oklahoma to a friend and she sent me to the seed house to buy them. She only wanted a pound or two, but she gave me fifty cents so I spent it all which was fourteen pounds. People thought we were a little bit crazy with so many seeds. We put a little in a paper bag but our luggage was so full we had to carry it.

Results of that venture was a lot of laughs because mom always had to be getting the seeds out of someone's car or house where she had forgotten them and everytime she would almost yell when she forgot them. One time she forgot the seeds too long and they haven't found us either. We had twice the price of them in laughs, though.

Isn't El Cajon getting a lot of pretty new stores? We have stores for babies, children, women and men, why not one for teenagers? It is a little difficult sometimes to find a fit for teenagers when you have to jump from the children's department to the adults. Do the teenager girls have as much trouble that way as the boys?

It has been several weeks since we have had a guessing game. People have said they look forward to that part each week so we will try some more of them.

What is our next legal holiday? Not all business houses honor it but the banks do. It would be interesting to know how many people go to a locked bank on that day. We have.

The top 50 coal companies accounted for one-half of total bituminous coal production in 1952.

Lucille Owens was born in Los Angeles in 1927, which makes her the oldest of the Belle of Lakeside Contestants, in years but not in looks. Although not born in Lakeside she is practically a native daughter, her folks having brought her here when she was two years old.

Lucille is a graduate of Lakeside Grammar School and was a student at Grossmont Union High School where she was a Drum Majorette for two years. She was also a member of the drill team for one year.

Other than for four years after Lucille's marriage, she has been a continuous resident of Lakeside. During that four years she lived in Texas, Northern California and Catalina.

Lucille has three children, two boys, age 8 and 6 and one girl, age 14 months.

Lucille is working to win the honor of being the 1953 Belle of Lakeside, right up to the last. She is having a box lunch and dance at the Memorial Building Thursday, Sept. 17th at 8:00 p. m. —Paul Roberts Valley Studio Photo.

Enrollment Rise Causes Staggered Class Schedule

To meet increased enrollment in the district, Grossmont High resorts to staggered schedule. This requires a portion of the students to be in school from 7:45 to 2:20. The second shift starts at 8:45 and ends at 3:20. The Helix day begins at 8:25 and ends at 3:00.

Reports disclosed Helix enrollment at 1614 and Grossmont at 2475. The latter is 75 below estimate but Principal Harry Riley reported that many additional registrations would probably soon bring the total near the predicted 2250.

Three new teachers approved were Mrs. Mary Smith, English-Social Studies. Theodoro Bardacke, Journalism-English, and Paul Clark, Mathematics. This brought the number of new teachers to a total of 31 of which 19 were additions over the number employed last year. Of the 31 new teachers, 20 are from California. Seven of these received part or all of their training at San Diego State College. 9 have no teaching experience, 10, 1 to 2 years, 5, 3 to 4 years and 7, over 4 years. 18 of the 23 men have had military service. The twenty-two married teachers have 35 children. Degrees held include 17 bachelors, 2 masters and 2 doctors.

The certificated staff of 151 including 135 teachers, 9 counselors, 2 vice-principals, 2 principals, 1 Director of Adult Education, 1 Assistant Superintendent and 1 Superintendent serves a student enrollment which is expected to reach 4200. 52 teachers have been assigned to Helix, 83 at Grossmont.

More Honors For Aubrey Watson

On last Friday evening at the Club Room on Tenth and G Street in San Diego, Aubrey Watson, of Santee, who recently retired after 32 years service with the Telephone Company was givn further recognition. Mr. Watson and his wife were honor guests at a dinner given for them by the Telephone Co.

Prior to the dinner Mrs. Watson was presented with a very lovely corsage and Mr. Watson was presented with a $100 defense bond.

The Watsons have received many personal calls and congratulating messages from their many friends in the Valley.

Camp Fire Girls Stage March

National Membership March of Camp Fire Girls Inc. starts this week for local members of this youth agency, according to Dr. Jens Hutchens, council president. This anual campaign to make Camp Fire membership possible to an ever greater number of young girls will extend through November 30.

With the resumption or school increased activity is resulting in the ranks of those active in the Camp Fire Girls organization throughout the San Diego Council territory. "No Salvation In Matter" Is Sunday Topic

Salvation is not to be found in reliance on materiality but through spiritual understanding of God, good, declares the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Matter" in all Christian Science churches.

The Golden Text is from Hosea (1:7): "I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the Lord their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen."

In the Lesson-Sermon this famous statement from Zechariah (4:6) appears, "Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts." This follows the account of the instantaneous healing by Christ Jesus of the impotent man at the pool of Bethesda. "Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk. And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked" (John 5:8, 9).

Dr. Viola Fryman, Chairman of Council No. 7, S. W. Region of International Toastmistress Clubs, is to be the honored guest of the El Cajon Valley Toastmistress Club at their meeting Tuesday, at Ernie's Rancho.

Stressing education in Council programs this year, Dr. Fryman believes that evaluation should be high on the list for consideration.

"Evaluation, sometimes spoken of as criticism, is clearly a matter of mutual helpfulness, said Mrs. Julian Hall, chairman of education for Council. "The critic holds the mirror for the speaker. If the reflection shown is not agreeable, she may well take the hint and try to make it better." In a day of advertising appeals and propaganda of every sort, one certainly needs to develop the habit of evaluating, said Mrs. Hall.

The opportunity to act as critic, or evaluator, is one of the privileges of the member of a Toastmistress club, and is valued just as highly as the opportunity to speak." Mrs. Frank Dell is scheduled as toastmistress, Mrs. Allen Barron, topicmistress. Mrs. Robert Harness and Mrs. N. K. Freeman are to deliver prepared speeches.

Opening Service Set At Alpine's Newest Church

The opening service in the new sanctuary of the Alpine Community church is announced by Dr. Roger M. Larson, pastor, for Sunday, September 20, at 11 a. m.

The new building is of red brick and native stone with a steep shingled roof, blending the traditional and modern. It has a seating capacity of 120 plus the choir. The native stone was donated by Hans Kern of Alpine and the stonework done by Guy Phelps, also of Alpine.

The building was started with a bequest of $5,000 from Mrs. DeForrest Smith, a former Alpine resident. Many gifts and memorials followed.

The altar and reredos, the work of Mrs. Margaret Montgomery, a member of the faculty of Scripps College at Pomona, is a memorial gift of Mrs. Arthur Pratt of Alpine, remembering her mother, Catherine Ellen Humphries. It is a mural made of vitreous enamel on copper tiles, the largest work of this art type ever done. The panels are of the various Christian symbols interwoven with a symbolic grape vine. A twelve foot cross of golden tiles rises above the altar, and at the very top is a dove. Included in Mrs. Pratt's memorial are candlabra, missal stand and offering plates of Oregon myrtlewood, which is also a wood of Palestine.

Another beautiful memorial is the pulpit. It was carved by Joseph Auer of San Diego, of Japanese birch, a gift of Mrs. Sumpter B. Smith, in memory of her husband. The carving is of a figure of Christ preaching.

The church bell in the new tower was used in the bell-tower of the old Town Hall where church services were held years ago, and again in the old church A memento of the past, it is still calling the people of Alpine to worship.

The dedication ceremony is planned for Sunday October 4th, at 4:00 p. m.

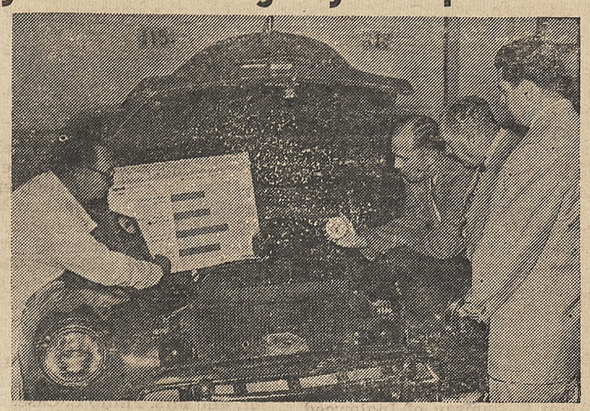
Gas Mileage Increase Guaranteed By Careful Driving Says Telephone Co.



Pacific Telephone's fleet of trucks and automobiles, the largest in Southern California, is driven millions of miles annually. Good gasoline mileage obviously means a considerable savings of money.

In an effort to improve mileage and at the same time keep intact an enviable safety record, the company is making surveys to eliminate waste.

With 3,700 motor vehicles in the Southland traveling 25 million miles a year, it's estimated that savings of $90,000 annually can be realized if gasoline mileage is increased by just one mile per gallon.

George Turner, superintendent of buildings, supplies and motor vehicles for the company, said the surveys are being made on telephone company equipment but are applicable to any car.

Turner suggested the following nine rules for driving with higher mileage as the objective — and greater safety as a bonus.

1. When leaving a signal don't try to win a race to the next one. On one test company drivers did just that and averaged 8 mpg.

2. Shift to high gear as soon as possible. At 20 mph, second gear uses 15 per cent to 20 per cent more gasoline than high gear; first gear 30 per cent to 50 per cent more.

20 mph—20 mpg.
30 mph—19.7 mpg.
40 mph—18.3 mpg.
50 mph—15.9 mpg.
60 mph—12.2 mpg.
70 mph—8 mpg.

4. Don't hop around in traffic. Every time you speed up to change lanes you over-use the accelerator pump, sending gasoline out the exhaust.

5. Pace yourself in traffic. Try to make signals, without speeding, to avoid unnecessary stops in traffic.

6. Warm up the engine. If necessary, use the choke but push it in as soon as possible. If it's an automatic choke be sure it's adjusted, and don't pump the accelerator.

7. Avoid needless idling. This costs most people 5 to 10 per cent more gasoline than is necessary.

8. Take it easy on the clutch.

9. Take it easy on the brakes. It takes gasoline to move your car so anticipate traffic changes and you won't have to use your brakes so much.

Monday morning many sleepy eyed Grossmont students found their way to school. After getting their programs for the year they stumbled through the fog to see who was back at Grossmont.

That's when they saw it? Yes, the new frosh, loaded down with books, others went to such extremes as wearing their clothes backwards and many of the boys had their Levis rolled up to the knees.

Monday you all read in your Foothill Echoes which were given out around the Campus, about the new four dollars ASB card. It's really good advice, because of all the benefits you get with it.

The "Hello Hop" will be held this Friday night at the School Auditorium. The dance will be free to all ASB Card holders and 25 cents without one.

Did you meet the new teachers yet? ~~They're really wonderful~~ so let's show with consideration that we are glad to have them with us.

Mr. Riley in his letter to the students Monday stated that there are 2,600 students enrolled at Grossmont this year. That means lots of new students that could use your help. It sure would be appreciated. Why don't you make it point to help some new student to get to know Grossmont and the other students.

Sorry I misinformed you about the Grossmont-Sweetwater game The game will be held in the Aztec Bowl the 24th of September.

Parents: September accounted for the heaviest toll of traffic deaths in 1952. This year, be on guard against a traffic tragedy in your family. Your San Diego County Traffic Safety Council asks you to instil traffic safety habits in your children. They will be facing increased hazards on streets and highways because of earlier darkness as they go to and from school.

Ice, the solid form of water, is lighter than water, while steam, the vapor form, is heavier — because both trap air in the change.

September Traffic Danger Stressed

If this year's gain in traffic safety is to be maintained over last year, every driver in the County must practice extreme caution on the roads during September, the most dangerous traffic month in our County, the San Diego County Traffic Safety Council warned today.

Last September took the lives of 28 San County residents, the heaviest traffic toll of any month in 1952.

"Both drivers and pedestrians are warned to stay alert on streets and highways during September especially, because of the extra hazards of earlier darkness, and the thousands of youngsters returning to school," said Fred H. Rohr, President of the Council.

Pedestrians who expect to be alive at the end of September, had better use the crosswalks, and never cross in mid-block, advised the Council. "Don't depend on the motorist seeing you — day or night."

The Council asks drivers to remember that speed is the No. 1 killer in traffic. Slow down and drive sensibly. Drive with caution in school zones, near parks and other play areas, and always expect the unexpected from children.

Working Minors Asked To Check Permit Dates

Minors under 18 years of age who are attending schools in San Diego County or who reside in the county school districts should check the expiration dates on their work permits immediately.

Dr. J. Smith Jacobs, Director of Pupil Personnel Service, San Diego county schools, today advised that application for new permits must be made by all minors who are working or planning to continue to work under permits that expired on Sept. 14th. Work permit application blanks are available at all junior or senior high school attendance offices.

This year for the first time the Sweetwater Union High School District has been granted authority to issue work permits for all minors residing within that dstrict. Completed Work Permit Application blanks for minors living in the Sweetwater District should be sent to the Sweetwater Union High School District, 2800 Highland Avenue, National City, California.

Work permits for minors residing in other county school districts will continue to be issued by the Office of the Superintendent of Schools, San Diego County, 209 Civic Center, San Diego 1, California. Further information can be had by calling Miss Jenkins, W-6321, Extension 275, Dr. Jacobs said.

Newsprint manufactured entirely from sawgrass was used experimentally in a recent issue of a newspaper in Florida.

"Children Dare, Driver's Beware"

According to the California Highway Patrol this National Safety Council slogan for September summarizes the best possible advice for motorists.

"Youngsters intent on a football ,a foot race or a playful dog, never seem to have time to watch for traffic hazards. Their personal problems seem too important to them.

"Now that classes have resumed, motorists must accept added responsibility for the protection of children," advises B. R. Caldwell, Commissioner of the Patrol.

"Parents are urged to review and reemphasize pedestrian and bicycle safety rules so that youngsters will know their own part of the job," he adds.

Last year 4500 children under 15 years of age were killed in traffic accidents, with the greatest increase recorded during the last four months of the year and during the afternoon and early evening hours.

"While we appreciate that children sometimes disregard danger signals, every motorist must remember that one moment of forgetfulness can result in a fatal collision.

"Since children may dare, drivers must beware," Caldwell reiterates.

HEALTH

"TB runs in his family." When you hear anyone make that statement, speak right up and say, "It isn't true."

Tuberculosis is not inherited. It is a disease caused by a germ which is passed on by people who have the disease to those about them.

You may have known of families where TB seemed to be inherited, passed through the generations like the family silver. Grandfather had it, and his sons, and his sons' sons. But it was not because of anything in the hereditary lines.

Tuberculosis seems to run in families because, naturally, family members come in cloest contact with a TB patient. If anyone is going to catch the germs he coughs up, they are the most likely victims.

This is why it is so important to find all cases of tuberulosis early, so they can be placed under treatment for their own health, as well as to prevent spread of the disease. An annual physical checkup and chest X-ray will help make certain that TB is found before it has done too much damage.

When TB is discovered, the tuberculosis hospital is the best place for the patient. There he can receive all the benefits of the most modern methods of treatment. There he can be cured with the certainty that he is not spreading his disease to those he loves.

Driving is NOT a right ---

You Can Be RULED OFF THE ROAD

When you put the plates on your car and the driver's license in your wallet, you have met your state's requirements to drive. Without these, your time on the highway would be short-lived. It is the Motor Vehicle Department's way of saying, "So far as we can tell, you should be permitted to drive."

But from then on it is up to you. Respect the law and the rules of the road, drive so as not to endanger your life or the lives of others, and you may continue to drive. But—

Those licenses are not a right—they are merely qualified permission. They do not say you can weave over the highways intoxicated; that you can drive at dangerous speeds; or that you can commit any act that may endanger the public safety. You can't get away with it. Continued bad driving habits, sooner or later, will rule you off the road.

In one year 600,000 drivers had their licenses suspended or revoked—every third one for intoxication. Speeding and recklessness were also high on the list.

Remember—driving is not a right; it is a license which if abused can be withdrawn. Respect it and continue to drive—safely, sanely.

SLOW DOWN—LIVES ARE IN YOUR HANDS!

LET'S GO

Two parades, Saturday the 26th. Also, chuck wagon breakfasts, 4-day horse shows, queen contests, dancing, rides, concessions . . . the whole works!

"Shane" will be coming soon to the Aero Dumont said.

Word has been received by the Lakeside Sportsmen's Club that everything is in order for the controlled pheasant hunt which will take place in November. Mr. Greene, Game Warden will be present at the next meeting scheduled for Sept. 28 in War Memorial Building, and will present all the information needed to hold a successful hunt.

A five year lease has been acquired by the committee on 320 acres of property north of Descanso. The land will be used for fishing and hunting. The lake on the property is already stocked with fish.

A colored film on pheasant hunting was shown at the meeting.

The fact that the blood in their gills flows in one direction and the water in another enables fish to utilize the oxygen in water most efficiently.

USEFULNESS OF CONTRACTS

Without contracts you would never dream of starting a business today. With a contract, you know that if the plans you make with others are not carried out, you can go to court and make the other parties do their part or pay you damages. And they, too, can make plans—knowing that the contract binds you as well. In the main experience affirms the usefulness of the contract. Let us see how.

Suppose you are a shoemaker. Once, your problem was simple. After an apprenticeship, you inherited your father's skills, tools and materials. You did business in the village among your neighbors like Hans Christian Anderson.

But today you need machinery, credits, markets. At each step you can move ahead only by contract. Your suppliers contract to deliver your machinery, leather, thread and nails at a stated price and by a given time.

Because you have these contracts you can take your next step. You contract to hire workers and pay them a specified amount. You borrow the cash from your bank under a contract to keep going until the money from your sales begins to come in.

FEW CONTRACTS REACH COURT

A surprising thing about contracts is that, in view of the billions in effect, so few ever reach our courts.

First, most people want to carry out their agreements in good faith. They value their good name. Second, they know that courts can enforce the terms of a contract.

Everybody has a stake in the proper enforcement of our contracts. Where rights are violated we want justice done. We want to protect our basic way of doing business. In one form or another, the courts see that the rare cases which become lawsuits are settled justly.
